

Top Wine Picks to Suit Every Political Palate

Vote on the Best Wine and Food Tickets for Your Election Night Entertaining

Wine Market Council Sommeliers are sharing winning wine picks to match your presidential vote. Whether you're left wing, right wing or somewhere in between, there is a simple wine pairing to enhance the flavor of your election night entertaining.

- Learn how your selection of white vs. red wine might be symbolic of how you vote. Data from Wine Market Council, an industry leader in wine research and consumer consumption trends, suggests your political affiliation says a lot about your wine preferences.
 - Red State wine drinkers are more likely to:
 - Purchase a brand of wine they aren't familiar with
 - Drink wine at home
 - Select wines based on how well they go with their meal
 - Blue State wine drinkers are more likely to:
 - Drink more Champagne or sparkling wine
 - Try wine made by a winery in their state
 - Purchase wine made from sustainably or organically grown grapes

