

Get In On The New York Wine "Crush"

Wine Market Council's Sommelier Network Shares "Insider" Wine Advice and Tips Just in Time for the 2008 Fall Harvest!

Wine Market Council sommeliers are spilling secrets on how to enjoy 2008's Fall harvest with top fall food and wine pairing suggestions, "crushing" common wine myths and sharing wine tips that will turn any wine novice into a wine aficionado.

For wine fun-loving singles, find your inner "Wine Sign" and discover how to turn all the great local wine and food festivals into the perfect date!

- Since 2000, the number of wineries nationwide has more than doubled to 4,712. Americans want a Napa Valley-like experience that's close to home and are beginning to check out their local wineries. This fall, New York residents can find their own Napa Valley experience right at home: WineAmerica, the National Association of American Wineries.

